Wheat a way to propose

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A FARMER proposed to his fiancée by ploughing the words into a field before taking to the skies to pop the question.

Rick Davies used a quad bike to carve the words 'Di will you marry me?' into a field of wheat at his home farm of Newton Lodge, in Clifton Reynes, near Olney.

The 32-year-old had feverishly worked for an hour to spell out the words and fortunately the charmer farmer's efforts paid off after his then girlfriend Diana Cull said yes.

Rick told MK NEWS: "I had been thinking for about a year, what the hell was I going to do? Then I won a flight at a charity auction for £50.

"After about two weeks it suddenly came to me I could write it in the crops and we could go up in the plane.

"I used a weed killer that was sprayed onto a quad bike and I just spelt it out. But I had to leave it at least a week before we flew up.

"I was really nervous about whether it was going to have worked. But it worked out even better than I hoped."

Rick first met Diana, 33, from Holcot, Northamptonshire, about two-and-a-half years ago when they were set up by friends at a dinner party.

He runs the farm with his dad, but while he was away Rick went to work on the wheat crops, which are used to make flour for Tesco bread.

"My dad was away on holiday, but hopefully he didn't mind what I did!" Rick joked.

"Looking back I was more nervous doing that than I was when we went up in the plane. If it was a mess I would have been a bit of a laughing stock. No-one knew what I was doing, not even the pilot, so it was a big shock.

"When Di saw it she started crying, but when she stopped she couldn't believe it had happened. Thankfully she said yes! It was perfect, exactly what I was hoping for."

The couple have set a date of July 9 next year to tie the knot at St Mary the Virgin Church in Clifton Reynes.

An ecstatic Diana said: "It was the most fantastic moment of my life and it was a big fat yes. I only have 51 weeks to wait until he's my husband. He is very romantic. I am the luckiest lady alive."

Avoid another Bowl disgrace urge residents

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have joined councillors in calling for a clampdown on 'disgraceful' behaviour and littering by visitors at The National Bowl – to avoid further trouble at the upcoming Foo Fighters gigs.

Residents of Furzton were disgusted after visitors to the Electric Daisy Carnival (EDC) caused chaos last weekend.

Now councillors have urged for lessons to be learned to avoid a repeat of the problems when Dave Grohl and his band appear at the Bowl on September 5 and 6. Their Saturday show has already sold out.

Following the EDC councillors Nigel Long and Mick Legg were inundated with calls from residents of Favell Drive and Elmhurst and have taken up the issues arising from the event with senior council staff.

One resident, Mike Wright, wrote on this newspaper's Facebook page: "A well organised event causes less issues. Where do you start with this lot?

"There were multiple vendors selling drugs, openly in the park near families and children."

Another resident, Veronica Jackson, added: "It was awful waking up to the state it was left in."

Cllr Nigel Long said: "It was clear the event failed in terms of supervision of the people attending the carnival.

"There were no stewards stopping poor parking, littering and ensuring that drug taking was challenged."

Events at the Bowl are subject to various licensing requirements and the problems have been brought to the attention of the council's licensing committee.

Cllr Long added: "We must not see a repeat of this disgraceful behaviour, and the poor management and monitoring of events must not be repeated.

"It is not fair on nearby residents in South Furzton and other areas."

Pedal power: The BMX stunt team in action at Go Outdoors at the weekend

Flying Scotsman helps to inspire children to cycle

OUTDOOR and cycling enthusiasts were treated to a day of stunt bike riding and Q & As with a record-breaking cyclist at Go Outdoors on Saturday.

Graeme Obree, also known as the Flying Scotsman, travelled from his home in West Scotland for the store's mini cycle festival, held to celebrate its increased investment in cycling.

Festival-goers were also treated to a display by cycle stunt team 2b's M.A.D.

Former professional cyclist Obree, who has twice broken the World Hour record (the most distance covered on a bike in an hour) and is the subject of the film The Flying Scotsman, was encouraged by the turnout.

He said: "I'm here to pass on my enthusiasm. As a genuine outdoors person, my main activity is cycling but it also enables me to do walking and other outdoor things.

"In this day and age when young people aren't getting out and they are staying indoors and playing on their computers, this is good as a business but it is good for society and giving people better lives."

Beloved family cat dies after being shot with a pellet

A PET cat died after being shot with a pellet gun.

The two-year-old cat, Diva, was let out of its owner's home in Downhead Park just before 10.45am on July 9, but at 7.30pm she was found on the driveway moving very slowly.

X-rays taken by a vet showed one pellet from a pellet gun was lodged in the right side of her abdomen. She died early the next morning.

Police have now launched an investigation. Anyone with information should call officers on 101.

Where's Donkey? Shrek and Princess Fiona found some other four-legged friends in the centre:mk

Shrek swamped by young fans

HUNDREDS of people stopped in their tracks yesterday as a familiar, albeit unusual face, roamed the streets of Milton Keynes.

Promoting their latest production at Milton Keynes Theatre, Shrek and Princess Fiona from Shrek The Musical pranced through the centre:mk, bringing with them a trail of fans trying to snap the stars in a ShrekSelfie.

The musical, which will be at the theatre from August 18, follows the ogre and his sidekick, Donkey, in their quest to save Princess Fiona.

But during the shopping centre trip Donkey was nowhere to be found, so Shrek had to make do with a ride on a carrousel.

Manager of Shrek The Musical, Neil White, said: "The tour around Milton Keynes gave the public a taste of the musical – and of course the opportunity to take a ShrekSelfie."

£6m refurb for council offices

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MILTON Keynes Council is set to spend almost £6million refurbishing its main office – which it will then encourage its staff not to use.

The authority will revamp its Civic Offices in Silbury Boulevard so it can move all its staff into the building.

It has said that the refurbishment will 'pay for itself' in six years, as all staff will be moved from another building in Saxon Court, which will be rented out.

But the council also insists it will be encouraging its workers to spend less time in the building it will be spending £5.9million refurbishing.

A council spokesman told MK NEWS: "The council needs to find more fluid, cost effective ways of working and that includes how we maximise the use of our office space.

"We are therefore encouraging staff to adopt more agile ways of working.

"In practice this means encouraging things like spending more time working more in the community closer to our citizens and stakeholders.

"As a consequence we will be able to share desk space more of the time, with workstations only used by people who need to use them."

Cllr Rob Middleton, cabinet member responsible for resources and commercialism, added: "The reason for this project is cost reduction, not refurbishment.

"Reducing where our staff is based within Central Milton Keynes to just one building will deliver considerable savings for taxpayers.

"We believe it makes good business sense to invest just under £6million now, so we can save the taxpayers at least £1.1million every year from 2017/18.

"In six years all the upfront investment will have been recovered – and after this the millions in promised savings will be free to be spent on protecting valuable frontline services."

Valued youth club faces 'uncertain' future

THE popular Newport Pagnell Youth Club faces losing its annual £15,000 council grant.

The club, in Wolverton Road, is used by hundreds of youngsters who attend dance classes, football matches, martial arts classes and a pre-school.

Mike Langford, chairman of the club's management committee, told MK NEWS: "It's all a bit uncertain until we know what's going to befall us, so it's difficult to make any arrangements."

An MK Council spokesman said: "In our discussion with Newport Pagnell trustees we have given a strong reassurance that we would work closely with them to ensure the continuation of the community facility."

Put 'wow' in Wolverton

I WRITE in response to the letter from Mike Saunders regarding the Wolverton Agora.

I have lived, worked and brought up my children in Wolverton. From almost day one I have sat on various committees where we have plotted and planned various ways of getting rid of the Agora.

Most recently I was a member of the Wolverton Town Centre Neighbourhood plan steering committee. For the last three years we have consulted with residents in and around Wolverton as well as businesses, town planners, developers and many other interested parties; we have formulated a plan which we all believe will bring our fantastic Victorian town back to life.

All we were waiting for was for Milton Keynes Council adopt the Neighbourhood Plan then we could rest assured that any future developments would enhance and revitalise our proud heritage rather than what we are now expecting, which is one monstrosity replaced by another.

Ninety-nine flats each with two or more bedrooms with only one parking space per flat is going to cause even more mayhem around our already parking starved town.

Living where he does, Mr Saunders will not be affected by the serious parking problems around the Agora. Where will shoppers park? Where will the businesses go that are currently operating from the Agora? Where are the shops in Radcliffe Street that are supposed to link Church Street and The Square? Why shouldn't we have sheltered housing for people who want to stay in Wolverton, where, in some cases, they have lived all their lives? All we will have instead is a corridor of flats three or four storeys high. There are other developers with a more sympathetic view; we do not have to settle for the first developer who comes along.

Just prior to the planning meeting on July 8, I was part of a group of people who over a couple of days collected more than 200 signatures from people living and working in and around Wolverton. Each of them signed because they agreed that this particular plan only benefits the developers.

We have waited this long to rid ourselves of the Agora, if we wait a little longer and wait for the Neighbourhood Plan to be adopted a developer who will revitalise, enhance and put the 'wow' in Wolverton will come along. I urge all residents who have a vote in the Wolverton Town Centre Neighbourhood Plan referendum on July 30 to tick the yes box to ensure we as residents achieve our aim to enhance, improve and revitalise Wolverton.

I raised road danger

SO NOW what local residents have known for years is official –The H9 and V8 roads are particularly dangerous (MK NEWS, July 15).

I first raised this issue 37 years ago, and many others have made the same point since then.

The speed limits are too high – yet we have the kind of nonsense peddled that any attempt to restrict speed is a knee-jerk reaction.

WHAT fantastic news that legendary rockers Foo Fighters are to play their rescheduled London gigs at the The National Bowl in September.

The venue has remained sadly under used since its heyday in the 1990s when there was a visiting international superstar virtually every other weekend.

The catalogue of past performers reads like a who's who of rock 'n' roll and includes such mega touring acts as U2, Queen, Bruce Springsteen, Bon Jovi, Metallica, ZZ Top and Ozzy Osbourne.

Reflecting the musical tastes of the era, others stars who packed the outdoor venue included David Bowie with a three-night residency, Erasure, Michael Jackson and Simple Minds.

Slightly more contemporary gigs were sold out shows from Take That and Robbie Williams, Green Day and Foo Fighters when they played the venue four years ago.

When the sun is shining, there is no better day out in Milton Keynes – even for the free loaders who sit on the bank of nearby Furzton Lake and listen to the show for free, waiting for the inevitable firework encore and finale.

But when it rains, as it often does during a Milton Keynes summer, the venue is transformed into a mud bath – a scenario that keeps the slightly less hardy concert-goers away.

The Foo's have a hardcore following and so the threat of a shower or two won't prevent these shows from being a sell out and will be another feather in the cap of Britain's premiere, purpose-built outdoor venue.

My personal favourite shows at the Bowl include Bon Jovi in 1996, when I introduced them on stage, and Bryan Adams stealing the show from headliners ZZ Top.

Village forges Italian link

Twinned: Mayors Keith McLean and Giorgio Nista, with some members of TS Invincible at the event in Little Brickhill

LITTLE Brickhill welcomed the Mayor of Colle Sannita in Italy on Saturday as the two areas became twinned.

The link was established through the owners of La Collina at The George restaurant, Toni and Angelina Zeolla, who have family ties in the Italian village (around two hours north east of Naples) and wanted to bring the Anglo Italian community in the area together.

Colle Sannita mayor Giorgio Nista and Senior Cleric Antonio Cerrone spent the weekend in Little Brickhill after flying in from Naples on Friday night.

Mayor Nista said: "I find this village very beautiful and attractive. I have been in Milton Keynes various times and there is a lot of people from my area who live here.

"Twinning the two areas is a wonderful idea. It will take a little work and we will build on the existing relationship."

Milton Keynes South MP Iain Stewart, who was also in attendance, said: "Bletchley has a very vibrant and very proud Italian community and it is very good that we can forge these links with similar villages in Italy and around the world."

ASBO problems are highlighted

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

ANTI-SOCIAL behaviour has been highlighted as one of the biggest problems in Milton Keynes.

More than 2,000 crimes were reported in areas across the city in April 2015, according to www.police.uk – which shares the crime and policing statistics for England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The site includes a crime map, where you can type in your postcode and see the most recent number of reported offences.

The latest statistics show anti-social behaviour represents a large number of the recorded incidents.

The highest number of crimes reported were in Stony Stratford and Wolverton – with 273 – and Central Milton Keynes and Campbell Park with 281.

In both areas, grouped by the website, anti-social behaviour was highlighted as a major problem, which needed to be prioritised by police.

Other problems that were common across MK included theft from vehicles and unauthorised parking at schools.

The area with the least reported crimes was Loughton Park and Olney with 53 and 56 reported in that month.

Speaking about the problems in Stony Stratford, former town councillor and Alderman Paul Bartlett told MK NEWS: "I live right in the centre of Stony and there has been a noticeable increase in anti-social behaviour in the last couple of years.

"At times I've had to call the police because there are 10 or 12 men fighting in the street.

"But I do think the problem can be contained.

"We have a good night-time economy and I do think some behaviour is boisterous rather than anti-social.

"Stony is lovely, but we do need to be vigilant."

Thames Valley Police failed to respond to requests from this newspaper to outline how it was tackling anti-social behaviour – despite having two days to do so.

On its website, however, it says: "Anti-social behaviour is a top priority for us to tackle.

"Excessive noise, vandalism and drunken loutish behaviour impact on the quality of life and cause alarm and distress.

"Make sure you call the police on 101 if the behaviour involves drunkenness, violence or threatening behaviour."

Concerns over kebab vans

RESIDENTS have raised mobile kebab vans as one of the key reasons for anti-social behaviour problems in their neighbourhood.

The regulatory committee of Milton Keynes Council has already refused two mobile kebab vans in residential areas in Browns Wood and Shenley Brook End.

Tonight, councillors are due to discuss whether to grant an extended licence to a van in the car park of Britten Grove Community Centre in Old Farm Park.

Numerous residents have complained that the vans attract problems such as litter, odours and 'drunk' people to the area near their homes.

One resident who objected to a previous van in Old Farm Park complained about seeing a man urinating outside their front door.

Another Old Farm Park resident, Mark Featherstone, who is against the current application, said: "The Tesco Express is already a magnet for delinquent youths. Imagine what a Greasy Joe's will do to the situation!"

Business as usual: Kyle Bloxham has not let an attack after work, inset, get the better of him

Assaulted teen will not give in

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGER who was attacked in a car park is refusing to let what happened affect his life.

Kyle Bloxham, 17, of Ulverston Crescent, Broughton, works as a cashier at Nando's at the Kingston Centre Retail and Shopping Park.

After finishing his shift at about 11.05pm on July 7 he was walking in the car park towards his moped when he was pulled to the ground from behind by two people.

Kyle said: "As soon as I hit the floor, they started beating me up. I got punched three times in the right eye, once in the left and then I was kicked in the ribs."

Both offenders ran off in the direction of the underpass that leads to Monkston and Walnut Tree.

Following the assault, Kyle drove home and is determined not to allow it impact on his life.

He added: "I still go out, walk around and work in Kingston as normal – I have not let this attack affect me."

Kyle's mother Elisha was at home on the night of the attack and called the police when her son arrived back.

She said: "When he came home he was quite visibly shaken up. It was an unprovoked attack – he had done nothing wrong. Kyle is not a confrontational person.

"As a parent, seeing your son in that state is not nice."

Police are investigating the assault and are appealing for witnesses to come forward.

The first offender has been described as mixed race, in his 20s, about 6ft 1ins, of medium build and was wearing his hood up.

The second offender is of mixed race, about 6ft 5ins, of medium build and was also wearing a hood.

Anyone with information on the assault is urged to contact Thames Valley Police on 101.

Injury: Cllr Sue Luttman was bitten on the arm and the side by the American Bull Terrier

Police hunt dog after bite attack

CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A COUNCILLOR has spoken to MK NEWS about how she was attacked by a vicious dog in a park.

Sue Luttman, 46, from The Hide, Netherfield, was bitten on her right arm and side by an American Bull Terrier in a park behind Brent in Tinkers Bridge on Saturday, July 11.

She needed treatment at Milton Keynes University Hospital and had to take time off work as a result of the attack.

At about 9am, Sue, who represents Netherfield on Woughton Community Council, was walking towards Tesco when she saw the dog on a lead in the park.

She said. "I stopped to talk to the owner as it is similar to my dog, Bud, and I was quite happy stroking her.

"But it just suddenly turned and bit my arm and my side just above the hip."

The owner pulled the dog away but refused to give his details. After receiving first aid at Tesco and completing her weekly shop, Sue went to the hospital.

The dog owner has been described as a white male, about 6ft, slim, with dark hair and clean shaven. He was wearing a long-sleeved white top and blue jeans.

The American Bull Terrier bitch was white with brown patches.

If you have any information on the attack, or recognise the description of the dog or the man, contact Thames Valley Police on 101.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Precious memories: Dawn Allen with Henry

DAWN'S LETTER

"Such precious photos of Henry we will never ever get back. I urge everyone to please ask around and keep an eye for this phone.

"Those pictures are of my precious little man and unfortunately he gained his angel wings back in October 2013 and we can never get these memories and pictures back. Please, please, please can someone please find my friend's phone.

Dawn
(Henry's mummy)

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTHER has penned a heartbreaking letter to recover a lost mobile phone which holds photos of her four-year-old son, who passed died from cancer.

Henry Allen from Bletchley bravely battled neuroblastoma for two years before passing away in October 2013.

His story inspired the creation of the charity The Henry Allen Trust.

Now, his mum Dawn is desperate for the Samsung S6 phone to be returned after it went missing at McDonald's in Central Milton Keynes at about 4.45pm on July 14.

The phone belonged to family friend Toni Rodriguez and held the only copy of photos from Dawn's trip to London with Henry just months before he died.

Pictures of their time in the capital with Toni and her mother Lisa were not backed up and have now been lost.

Along with the phone, about £20 in cash and Toni's driving licence went missing.

She added: "Pictures like that we will never be able to get back and it is just heartbreaking as we won't ever get that time with Henry again."

Anyone with information about the phone can contact the trust at media@thehenryallentrust.org.uk

Dampened spirits: Matthew Nayler looking at the leaking roof of Bradwell Windmill

‘Mill work not done properly’

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

PROBLEMS with refurbishment work at a 19th century windmill have left it with a leaking roof.

Matthew Nayler, 52, from Stony Stratford, was fuming when he discovered Milton Keynes Council had not got planning permission to alter Bradwell Windmill and that the listed building was not fitted with a weather-tight roof.

Mr Nayler was a volunteer at the windmill for six years, but says he gave up when the council refused to listen to his concerns about changes to the historical building.

He said: “In 2014 the council spent £150,000 on restoration work at Bradwell Windmill, which resulted in a new roof and new windows for which the council neglected to obtain listed building consent. They now have to apply for retrospective permission.

“Also, they have not used the right material which has led to the roof leaking. I estimate this will cost about £50,000 to put it right.”

The mill, located just off V6 Grafton Street, was built around 1805.

A spokesman from Milton Keynes Council said: “Unfortunately, shortly after the project was completed, the finish applied to the roof failed and had to be replaced. New windows were installed after the originals were vandalised.

“These minor alterations are in keeping with the historic character of the building and an application for their retention is being prepared.”

Even superheroes need support sometimes.

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who can offer a safe and loving home for a child/young person in care. We are especially seeking carers for teenagers. As a Milton Keynes Council foster carer you will be provided with a generous allowance plus support and training.

It’s a challenging role; one which will always ask for a great deal of input and support from you. However in providing a home to a child/young person who is unable to live with their family for a period of time you will be creating a wonderful experience for everyone involved.

Everybody needs good neighbours: Fundraisers from Blue Bridge have been helping the Leask family who lost their home in a fire last week

Fire family 'humbled'

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A FAMILY who lost their home in a fire have told MK NEWS they are 'extremely humbled' by the generosity of their neighbours.

Firefighters were called to Gardiner Court in Blue Bridge to tackle a blaze that ripped through two semi-detached houses on Thursday, July 9.

Two families were forced to flee their homes as the fire quickly spread from one property to another.

At an emergency meeting of Romans Park Residents Club following the incident, more than 40 people agreed to start fundraising for the families – and have since raised more than £1,500.

Gordon Leask, who lived at one of the houses affected by the fire with his three children, said: "My family and I are extremely humbled by the efforts our neighbours have made towards helping us.

"It's been a really tough time for us, so it's refreshing to know we have such a strong community base.

"We are living in a hotel at the moment, so in a time where we're all pretty low, this news has put a smile on our faces.

"I can't thank our neighbours enough for their kindness."

To raise more money Romans Park Residents Club, which is based in Constantine Way, will be holding a family fun day on Saturday at 5pm.

Linda Morgan, chairman of trustees for the club, said: "We are doing everything we can to help the families who tragically lost their homes a few weeks ago.

"We encourage anyone to come along to the fun day to support the cause."

The Lions Club of Bletchley, whose president, Michael Bartlett, is a resident of Blue Bridge, gave an immediate donation of £200 and has since set up a Just Giving account for donations.

Cash can be donated by texting LION00, followed by an amount of £1, £2, £3, £4, £5 or £10, to 70070. A page will also be set up at www.justgiving.com/bletchley-lionsclub

Advertorial

My Chiquito experience started well with the nice little touch of the popcorn, offering a slightly salsa twist with a light sprinkling of Mexican salsa seeding. It's a great little starter ahead of getting the drinks.

I plumped for one of the new cocktails on offer for this summer, and seeing as I was eating rather early on in the day I selected the £7.45 'Brunch Margarita' - featuring smooth marmalade shaken with tequila, orange liqueur and a dash of home-made syrup, served on the rocks with a sriracha salt rim.

I was rather taken aback by a tortilla chip resting on top, but it actually superbly complimented it. The orange and tequila mixed well, subtly without either flavour overpowering. You can just picture yourself with this on a sunny Cancun beach basking in the Mexican sun.

For starters I opted for the Peri-Peri prawns, which came covered in a tasty spicy sauce. There was plenty of sauce to dip the mountain of tortilla chips that accompanied it.

For the main course I was served the Steak Chilli Con Carne. With prime chunks of steak in a chilli con carne sauce served with Mexican spiced rice, tortilla chips, refried beans, it was topped with sour cream.

The ingredients come together nicely for a great course. The steak was tender with a nice BBQ flavour, the sour cream was the tastiest I've ever had and the refried beans were top notch. And the seasoning in the rice was perfection – I'm told it was the same stuff that was on the popcorn!

If you want an evening of authentic Mexican food, but also want the option of other grills and nothing that is too spicy or overbearing, then it's well worth a visit.

MK NEWS reporter JESSICA DUNCAN attended the latest meeting about the £10million expansion of MK Gallery, which is expected to be completed by 2017 to coincide with the city's 50th birthday. Here are 13 things you need to know about the expansion...

1 The plans include a café to encourage more people to spend time socialising at the gallery.

2 Gallery rooms form a line and will all have a glass window so you can see all the way through, making them feel more connected.

3 Children's classes will continue in the new education room, which can also be used by people of all ages to experiment with art. With plans for a patio door into a garden space, it should be an inspirational room which is also practical.

4 A first-floor cinema room will host film nights and concerts.

5 Large windows and a viewing space upstairs will make the most of the views over Campbell Park.

6 Gallery space will host contemporary art and historical exhibitions, celebrating Milton Keynes and art throughout the centuries.

7 The gallery is hoping to use the new space, especially upstairs and the café, to be able to host weddings and meetings.

8 Thanks to funding from Milton Keynes Community Foundation, expansion plans include a lift to fit two wheelchairs. All entrances will be large enough to ensure all spaces are accessible to those with disabilities.

9 6a architects, which drew up the plans, wants to incorporate the history and image of Milton Keynes into the scheme to celebrate its original architecture. Mirror panels will reflect the surrounding area onto gallery walls.

"WE REALLY want it to become the cultural quarter of Milton Keynes and put us on the map.

"We want to be able to cater for the bigger crowds of 600 people that we have welcomed to other exhibitions and hope people who may not have visited us will go to our café and then become more interested in the different things going on."

Gallery director Anthony Spira

10 Following feedback the gallery is considering putting seating in all the exhibition spaces to enable people to sit and enjoy the art on the walls.

11 Plans also include an outdoor space, which it is hoped will connect the gallery with redways and the underpass leading to Campbell Park.

12 The expansion has seen support from residents, as well as Art Council England, Milton Keynes Chamber of Commerce and MK Community Foundation, which donated £311,000 from the Margaret Powell Foundation Fund.

13 The gallery hopes to encourage more visitors and add to all the other reasons Milton Keynes is a great place to come to.

Andrew, from MK and a Commonwealth Games gold medallist, was celebrating National Table Tennis Day.

He said: "This day is just celebrating table tennis. The game is for all ages and anyone can play it. It is great to see so many faces I recognise and so many new ones."

Capital of Culture bid in the pipeline

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A BID will be prepared for Milton Keynes to become the European Capital of Culture in 2023.

The decision was made at a Milton Keynes Council meeting last Wednesday after councillors unanimously voted in favour of the plans.

Councillor Liz Gifford, who put forward the motion, said: "Milton Keynes is at the point where it is ready and has the chance to raise significantly its national and international profile and self-image.

"Now is the time to be as ambitious for MK as the founding fathers were and produce a winning bid that will generate tremendous momentum and give our city an outstanding competitive edge on the national and international stage."

Media speculation has suggested that Milton Keynes could face competition for the prestigious title from Dundee, Leeds and Plymouth.

The proposed bid would be put forward between 2016 and 2017 and a shortlist will be drawn up in 2017.

The winner will be announced in 2018.

Speaking about the bid, council leader Pete Marland said: "It is great to see bidding for European Capital of Culture 2023 has won widespread support, not just from councillors, but the wider public and businesses."

Fears grow for library's future

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS have raised concerns over plans to downsize their library as Milton Keynes Council looks to save thousands of pounds.

The authority is currently reviewing its library service in a bid to slash £449,000 from its budget over the next three years.

Bletchley Library in Westfield Road is one of those under review. It provides a number of services for the community, including the Bletchley Archive, which may be forced to move to another premises if the plans to scale back the library go ahead.

Member Wendy Williams, 80, from West Bletchley, said: "It would be hard to find another space. We bring people into the library who have an interest in history and we really are part of the community.

"They have put forward ideas such as moving to a room in Bletchley Leisure Centre or remain at the current location but share the space with another business.

Regular user: Herb Booth, Bletchley's community heritage officer

"We don't have an internet café and if the library was to downsize it would restrict a lot of resources for the area – a lot of people use it for research and study."

As well as using computers, visitors to the library can rent books, e-books and films and attend a number of events such as children's story time.

Herb Booth, Bletchley's community heritage officer, is another library regular. He feels that with more people coming to the area the library shouldn't be made smaller.

He said: "Rather than cutting back educational, social and cultural services we should be expanding them for public need."

A spokesman for the council said: Over the next three years Milton Keynes Libraries needs to secure an additional total of £449,000 in savings.

"As part of a review of libraries we are looking at how we can work with partners and the community to make significant savings and make better use of library buildings."

Mayor pulls up shocking socks

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE Mayor of Milton Keynes has taken to wearing wacky ties and socks to help him stand out when representing the city.

Keith McLean hopes his out-there attire, which also includes his trademark cerise and grey blazer, will help get him noticed during his 12-month stint in the borough's top civic post.

He said: "Someone told me that previous mayors had been prone to only wearing dark coloured socks, but I am a bit more out there.

"I am not trying to devalue the position of mayor, quite the opposite actually – I am trying to make the mayoral presence seen and get people to remember me and the work I am doing with charities and members of our community."

Cllr McLean, from Emberton, said that since he became mayor in May he has continued to add some 'random' pairs of socks to his 'previous dull collection'.

He added: "I will still wear a formal suit when I am going to important events, or in the council chambers for example, even if I still wear my bright socks underneath.

"I am also known for my Olney Rugby Club blazer because I once played and now continue in the administration side of things at the club.

"I just want to do as much as I can to rekindle the view of mayor and all it can do to help people in Milton Keynes and raise the profile of organisations and charities."

Talking about the events he has attended so far, Cllr McLean stressed how emotional it had been meeting inspirational students at The Redway School, a special school for young people with a range of learning difficulties, and talking to people with dementia.

Plan: Cllr Mike Galloway in The Square in Wolverton, where he believes there should be a semi-permanent market

Market suggested to cover for Agora

CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

WOLVERTON Agora could be forced to close after concerns were raised over fire safety.

But tomorrow plans are due to be discussed for an emergency market to be set up outside the centre if it shuts.

The prospect of the centre closing due to fire safety issues was raised at a meeting of Milton Keynes Council's development control committee.

Developer Brickhill Estates has been informed by a fire officer of several concerns – the main issue being whether smoke would be able to escape through the roof if there was a fire.

To counter the threat of a possible closure, Mike Galloway, councillor for Wolverton West, will present plans for a semi-permanent market in The Square at a Wolverton and Greenleys Town Council meeting tomorrow evening.

After a closure on the same grounds in 2011 caught many businesses by surprise, Cllr Galloway is determined not to allow history repeat itself.

He said: "The town council and Milton Keynes Council should be ready to act very quickly.

"They were taken by surprise in 2011 and I think we should be more prepared this time to do something.

"It is a pre-emptive measure to have ready to pull off the shelf whenever we need it, be it in a week, a month or even a year, which becomes important if there is any real threat of the current building closing."

A decision on the demolition of the Agora is expected to be made by September.

There are plans to replace it with 100 residential units and eight ground floor retail units.

The project would reinstate Radcliffe Street and reconfigure the existing car park.

Winners unfurl World Cup flags

BY JACK ASH
editor@mk-news.co.uk

SIX people have won the chance to walk out with teams at stadiummk at this year's Rugby World Cup, after finding a flag planted in Milton Keynes by England player Ben Foden.

The competition saw sponsor Emirates release clues on social media about the location of the flag around the city and required entrants to take a selfie with it.

England start their World Cup campaign against Fiji on September 18, while stadiummk will be hosting its first game on October 1 when France play Canada. Foden, who plays for Northampton Saints, said the competition winners can look forward to an unforgettable experience.

"It is pretty hard to explain. You can feel the eyes of 84,000 people on you and the feeling is electrifying – you can never get used to it and the sense of pride that comes with representing England," he said. "Flag bearers will really feel it because the crowd will roar them on when the team comes on. It all becomes addictive – you will want to do it again and hopefully that encourages them to become more involved in the sport."

Waving winners on: Rugby star Ben Foden says six successful contestants will have an 'electrifying' experience at stadiummk

The six winners' names are set to be released at the end of the week.

Foden is currently in a race against time to feature in England's World Cup squad after injuring his left knee in January, but is ready for head Coach Stuart Lancaster's call.

IS YOUR FINAL SALARY PENSION SCHEME BAD FOR YOUR WEALTH?

It has long been a commonly held view that so called final salary pension schemes are sacrosanct. They are generally regarded as gold-plated and secure. However, since the new Pensions Freedom rules were introduced by the government on 6 April the whole ball game has changed significantly.

One of the many pensions changes introduced was the ability to not only leave your money purchase pension to your spouse but also to other members of your family such as children and grandchildren. This means that if you want your pension to survive you and benefit your family you can now do so because your pension need not die with you.

The problem with final salary pensions is that like annuities they die with you. Pretty much the best you can hope for is that your final salary pension scheme will provide a 50% widow's/widower's pension on your death. On the second of your deaths it dies with you. This is particularly pertinent if it is a large pension.

We have a male client who is in his fifties with a wife and children. He has a company final salary pension scheme worth c.£900K. In the last year he has been diagnosed with cancer and although he has recently been given the all clear his life expectancy will probably be much reduced. He is quite wealthy and has other large pensions so retirement income is going to be plentiful in any case.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

We did a cashflow forecast comparing the income from his final salary scheme with that from a personal pension based on the pension transfer value offered by his previous employer's pension scheme. We assumed investment growth of just 5% p.a. in a new personal pension. Staggeringly for all time periods up to and way past retirement his and his widow's personal pension income was no worse than the income from his final salary pension scheme would have been. More importantly the value of his personal pension fund did not fall much at all in value! This means that his family in this situation would have been substantially better off to the tune of nearly £900K! He decided to transfer his pension preferring the "bird in the hand" approach.

Please do bear in mind this is just one isolated case. Every client's situation is different. Professional advice is essential.

Final four in battle for recording prize

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

AFTER a year of searching for the best talent in the area, four finalists have been chosen to take part in the final of a competition to win a recording prize worth thousands of pounds.

The artists have been chosen from hundreds of entries to the Spotlight talent contest, which were put to a public vote in May.

After more than 1,000 votes from fans and supporters they will now do battle to win a £5,000 recording and PR package. A judging panel will pick the winner of the competition, organised by MK-based company New Money Entertainment, at the final on August 8 at Snozone in Xscape. The final will also feature a performance by X Factor finalists Rough Copy.

The talent show, supported by MK NEWS, began in July 2014 in a bid to give new talent a shot at succeeding in the entertainment industry.

The finalists are Phillipa Akers, 24, from Stacey Bushes, who is a singer/songwriter.

In the Spotlight: Karen Preet and, inset, Anelisa Lamola

She has performed her mix of soul, acoustic and pop music in nights and venues around Milton Keynes.

Manny & The Coloured Sky, from Shenley, is a 23-year-old acoustic, soul, folk and rap-style singer/songwriter.

Karen Preet, 24, is from Northampton and found her love for music while listening to her dad's vinyl collection of Michael Jackson.

Anelisa Lamola, aka Miss VonTease, is a 26-year-old from London.

Her first professional singing debut came in 2007 when she got into the top six in the girls category on series seven of the X Factor.

Tickets to the final cost £6, or £12 for VIP tickets that include a meet and greet with Rough Copy. To buy tickets call 07902 597584.

A musical mash-up

RETURN of the Forbidden Planet will land at The Chrysalis Theatre with YouTube sensation Demon Tomato Dave next week.

The award-winning musical by Bob Carlton, which combines Shakespeare and rock 'n' roll with sci-fi costumes, will be brought to you by community theatre group CLICK Arts.

The story is based on the cult B-movie Forbidden Planet, which in turn was based on The Tempest and Shakespeare, or at least his famous lines, will feature within the production.

It promises to have the whole family dancing in the aisles to classics hits like Good Vibrations, Great Balls of Fire and The Monster Mash.

The Starship Albatross is on a routine scientific survey flight when it encounters a meteor shower.

Pulled to a strange new planet the square-jawed hero Captain Tempest and his crew meet a megalomaniac scientist, his naive teenage daughter and a rollerblading robot.

The cast also features YouTube sensation Demon Tomato Dave, who will be part of the cast.

The show will be performed from Thursday, July 30 until Saturday August 1 at 7.30pm. There will also be a matinee at 2.30pm on Saturday.

Tickets, costing £12, or £8 for concessions, can be bought at www.ticketsource.co.uk/chrysalismk or from the theatre on 01908 235505.

LOVE Me Tender star Ben Lewis is loving doing something that he's never done before.

Ben, along with former EastEnders star Shaun Williamson and singer Mica Paris, takes to the stage of Milton Keynes Theatre from Monday to wow fans with a multitude of Elvis Presley hits.

He told MK LIFE: "I'm from Australia and this is my first tour outside London. But Love Me Tender is something I've not done before and that's fun for me. It's great to create a role from the ground up."

In 1950s America, Ben's character Chad, a guitar-playing,hip-swivelling stranger, rides his motorbike into a small town.

"Chad is the character that Elvis himself would play," added Ben. "But I'm not doing an Elvis impersonation – there are already plenty of people who are great at that. We try and do the music justice and try and bring it in line with an original narrative.

"I think the success of any musical is actually how well you incorporate the music into the script and we have a Tony award-winning writer who has absolutely nailed it."

Love Me Tender takes place at 7.30pm from Monday to Friday. Tickets cost from £20.90 (plus £2.85 transaction fee) from www.atgtickets.com

What Your Agent Has To Say

Shared ownership can be cheaper than renting

RISING house prices and larger deposits are making it tougher for first time buyers to get on the property ladder and in many cases people are forced into living with family for longer or renting.

Purchasing a shared ownership property is a fantastic option when you find yourself in this position and in many cases you can move into a brand new property for as little as £6,000 (subject to status).

You initially purchase a 50% to 75% share of the property and pay a subsidised rent on the share you don't own. The total monthly payment for the rent and mortgage usually works out less than renting an equivalent property and you are paying off your mortgage and building up equity at the same time.

This will allow you to move up the property ladder in the future or even purchase more shares in your shared ownership property until you own it outright.

Phone Jane at Elevation on 01234 271566 to find out if you qualify for a shared ownership property and to discuss current availability.

Mitsubishi ASX- New Model Line-Up

Exterior design changes see two-tone 18" alloy wheels and more dynamic looking wheel arches added to the mid and high specification ASX models which give the exterior a fresh new look. Widespread updates to the interior, including a new ergonomically enhanced three-spoke steering wheel, improve refinement across the range.

The Mitsubishi ASX is now available with a new Euro 6 compliant1.6 turbo diesel engine. This frugal yet punchy unit produces 112bhp and just 119g/km CO2, meaning zero VED in the first year of ownership.

The new range has also undergone a name change, with the new line-up consisting of the entry level ASX ZC, the mid-level ASX ZC-M, and the range topping ASX ZC-H. Mitsubishi's clever and capable crossover has always stood out from the crowd – and with the revised model just arriving in dealerships, it will soon be attracting more attention than ever. The crossover marketplace has grown rapidly in recent years and Mitsubishi Motors has been a key player in this important segment. The ASX is a stylish, well-priced, practical contender that has won many admirers and delivers genuine driving pleasure. With over 700,000 units sold around the world since its launch, the it's been a global success.

The ASX has the choice of three Euro 6 compliant engines: A 1.6 petrol with 115bhp. The new 1.6 Di-D turbo-diesel with 112bhp which produces just 119g/km CO2, and the existing 2.2 DOHC 16V engine found in Outlander.

Based on the same platform as the Outlander, Lancer and Lancer Evolution X, the ASX bridges the gap between Mitsubishi's conventional passenger cars and its rugged off-roaders. Practicality and versatility are key to the appeal of the ASX. With a wheelbase to match the Outlander, passenger space is generous, with the flexible seating inside making the ASX just the right size for customers looking for a practical, enjoyable family car.

Helping the ASX achieve its impressive economy and emissions figures are low rolling resistance tyres and intelligent power management, to allow the ASX to return its impressive consumption figures. Indeed, every aspect of the ASX has been engineered with its environmental performance in mind, to help create not just an enjoyable, versatile family vehicle, but a responsible one too.

The ASX has a choice of petrol or diesel two-wheel-drive versions. For those requiring the security of four-wheel-drive, ASX also offers off-road capability based on the proven capabilities of the bigger Outlander off-roader.
All models include a spacious, family-friendly interior and offer a comfortable, refined ride.

Like other models in the Mitsubishi range, ASX is temptingly priced but that doesn't mean it's lacking key standard equipment.
All models have alloy wheels, air conditioning, electric windows and keyless entry. Other desirable features such as Bluetooth, leather upholstery, satellite navigation, seat heaters and a reversing camera are available.

The new ASX range has a choice of transmissions. Mated to the 1.5 petrol engine is a 5-speed manual gearbox, whilst the 1.6 diesel engine has a six-speed manual box on both its 2WD and 4WD models. A six-speed auto is the exclusive choice for the 2.2 diesel, a package that comes complete with steering column mounted paddle shifters.

Citroen C4 Cactus

BUBBLE RAP

The Citroen C4 Cactus looks unlike any other vehicle on the roads thanks to its Airbump side cladding and a whole host of other bold details. Under the skin, it's much the same as a C3, which isn't quite so avant-garde, but as a comfortable and simple city scoot, it has much to commend it.

Despite the C4 nomenclature, under the textured skin of this vehicle are the more prosaic underpinnings of the C3. Despite the car's adventurous styling, there's some real common sense going on here. Economise on the oily bits and go nuts with the shiny bits seems to have been the mantra with this one, so it probably won't surprise you to learn that the C4 Cactus doesn't break any new ground as a driver's car. That's not to say that Citroen hasn't applied its design genius to improving this car's responses. It's extremely light. The three-cylinder petrol model weighs in at just 1,020kg, which is around 200kg less than an equivalent C4, which helps it get the most out of its modest engines. Even the most powerful version gets a mere 1.2-litre three-cylinder petrol powerplant. We've seen this unit before in the Peugeot 208 and the Citroen C3 and it's a cracker that really loves a few revs.

Here it develops 110PS and will get the C4 Cactus to 62mph in 9.3 seconds. It's joined by two other petrol engines ('PureTech 75' and 'PureTech 82' units) and a frugal 'BlueHDi 100' diesel powerplant. Most buyers will stick with the five-speed manual gearbox, although five and six-speed Efficient Tronic Gearboxes (ETG) are also on the menu. Citroen has engineered the suspension set-up for comfort rather than outright handling focus and the power steering is geared towards ease of use in cities.

They're called 'Airbumps' in case you were wondering. Looking for all the world like a pair of puncture repairs on the side of the C4 Cactus, these thermoplastic polyurethane mouldings have air capsules inside to help absorb car park nerfs and nudges. They also look pretty cool, as indeed does the rest of the C4 Cactus. We've become slowly accustomed to this design language with the C4 Picasso, but the Cactus takes things a stage further. Drawing its inspiration from the C-Cactus show car, a vehicle that Citroen's top brass once deemed too extreme, the party line seems to have softened since then even if the styling hasn't. But then that car first appeared on show stands seven years ago. Tastes have changed in the interim.

The Citroen C4 Cactus might look as if it's just driven off a motor show stand, but questions remain as to how many buyers are looking for something quite so extreme. There's also the inconvenient fact that once you've got past the flourishes of a stylist's pen, the mechanicals, driving experience and equipment levels of the car are rather average. So is this a car that's all style and no substance? Not really. It's hard to argue with something that puts a smile on your face yet can return fuel consumption figures in the nineties. Anything that makes frugality a little more fun is to be welcomed and there ought to be a place for the C4 Cactus in a congested automotive market.

Keener drivers will probably still look elsewhere, but if you want a low-mileage urban scoot that looks great and is easy to drive, the C4 Cactus answers the call. Sure, they sound an undemanding set of criteria but sometimes it pays not to over-analyse. Just don't underestimate the amount of work Citroen has put into making the Cactus such a simple pleasure.

Record sponsorship deal

MK LIGHTNING have signed the biggest sponsorship deal in the club's history – a major contract that rivals that of some of the Elite League teams.

A deal with Smith Recycling (MK) Ltd has been reached for the 2015-16 season, which will see the company's logo take prime position on the team's light, dark and warm up shirts.

The Smith Recycling logo will also feature on the team's playing shorts, protective helmets and on rinkside media boards, as well as on the ice pad itself.

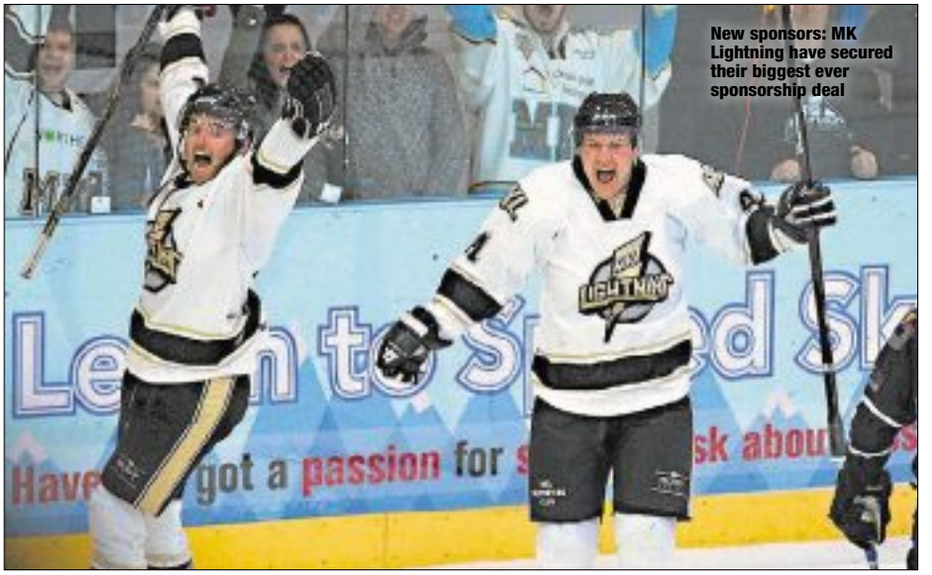
The team will be coached this season by Pete Russell – head coach of the Great Britain men's team, who led the GB U20 team to gold medals at last season's World Junior Championships.

Smith Recycling is a subsidiary of the Smith Construction Group Ltd, which recently won a £14million contract to carry out the infrastructure works for the Western Expansion Area in north-west Milton Keynes.

Lightning's general manager Nick Poole said: "We're thrilled to be able to bring them on board for the upcoming season, with a view to this becoming a two-year deal.

"We've enjoyed some great discussions over the last few months and are incredibly excited about working together.

"This is the largest sponsorship agreement Lightning have had in the club's history and is a significant investment at the senior level of ice hockey in this country – which shows the level of confidence Smith Recycling has in the club. We'll do everything possible to repay that faith."



New sponsors: MK Lightning have secured their biggest ever sponsorship deal

Meanwhile, Lightning will take on Basingstoke Bison in a double-header in Hampshire on Wednesday, September 2 before they entertain their league rivals in Milton Keynes on Wednesday, September 9.

The new season begins on Saturday, September 12.

The games against Bison bookend the annual Ashes fixtures against Peterborough Phantoms, with the home leg taking place on Saturday, September 5 and the away match the following day. Tickets will be available after August 3.

No sibling rivalry for the Bakers

THERE'S nothing like a bit of sibling rivalry to get the juices flowing – but Milton Keynes' Erin Baker is adamant it will be the experience rather than bragging rights that he will be looking to savour when he and his younger sister Alderney take to the roads for this year's Prudential RideLondon.

Erin, 15, and Alderney, 14, will be flying the flag for the Baker family on Saturday, August 2 after both were selected in the Central team for this year's Prudential RideLondon Youth Grand Prix.

Alderney has previous experience of the race, having taken part last year against regional teams from around the country.

But with Erin engaged with other commitments 12 months ago and unavailable for selection, the Team Milton Keynes cyclist is determined not to miss out this time around.

"I was in another race last year so I couldn't take part," he said.

"I was a bit jealous of my sister but now I can have my turn this year.

"My dad will be in the crowd watching us, which will be quite a special moment, although I think we'll be in separate races so it won't be too competitive between us."

The Youth Grand Prix is just one of a number of separate events taking place over the weekend with the Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle, Surrey 100, Surrey Classic, Handcycle Classic and 10th Brompton World Championship providing plenty of entertainment.

And having sampled the atmosphere last year, Alderney admitted she could not wait to get back to London.

"I did it last year and the crowds were great, it was such a good experience. I did not get to really focus on the sights though as I was concentrating too hard," said Alderney, who also competes for Team Milton Keynes.

"I'm a year older and a year stronger so hopefully I can do even better. It's great to be able to ride round roads which professional cyclists are also going to be on over the weekend.

Prudential RideLondon takes place on August 1 and 2.

Milton Keynes close gap to North Crawley

MILTON Keynes moved within a point of table-topping North Crawley in the Four Counties League after they beat New City (Milton Keynes).

New City were dismissed for 167 but Milton Keynes were able to knock that target off with four wickets to spare.

Unbeaten scores of 85 from Chris Timms and 56 by Andy Overton helped New Bradwell defeat Eaton Bray by seven wickets.

Great Brickhill closed the gap on league leaders Thame Town to 15 points by defeating Cumnor by five wickets.

Ahead Khan got four wickets while James Clarke popped up with three as Cumnor were all out for 168.

In reply, Mark Nelson struck 49 and Archie Hammond picked up 37 runs as Great Brickhill reached their target in the 40th over.

It was a good win considering that Cumnor won the toss.

Wolverton Town had to forfeit their match against Leighton Buzzard Town because several players were observing the Muslim holiday of Eid.

Stony Stratford's struggles continued in the Northamptonshire Premier League after they were beaten by Northampton Saints.

Stony won the toss and elected to bat first.

James Pickles scored 33 and Vicram Sohal had a knock of 44 to give Stony a decent start but only two other batters reached double figures as Stony were bowled out for 143.

Stony began the second innings well as Chris Harris was bowled by Jamie Baxter for a two-ball duck. However, 67 not out from Corbyn Dolley helped Saints reach 146-3 after 31 overs and kept Stony bottom of the league.

BADMINTON

The skipper: Peter Mills captained MK Badminton in the inaugural National Badminton League last season. The fixtures for the next campaign have now been revealed

NBL fixtures released

FIXTURES for the second National Badminton League have been revealed, with MK Badminton being given a tough start to the campaign.

The six founding NBL franchise teams will once again compete in a series of six Monday evening match-nights running from November 2 to March 21, 2016.

The teams participating are MK Badminton, last year's winners Team Derby, Loughborough Sport, Surrey Smashers, Birmingham Lions and University of Nottingham.

Each team will enjoy home and away fixtures broadcast live on Sky Sports as the NBL aims to build upon its audience of 750,000 for the debut season.

The 2015/16 season's opening night will see Surrey Smashers entertain MK Badminton at Surrey Sports Park, in a reversal of the fixture that opened the debut NBL season at the centre:mk last season. That match was broadcast in front of the Sky Sports cameras and this one will be too.

MK Badminton will head to Surrey Sports Park looking to avenge last season's 4-1 defeat and get off to a winning start after last season's sixth place finish, which saw them miss out on the end of season playoffs.

It promises to be a big season in badminton as players try to ready themselves for the Rio Olympics in Brazil next summer.

Robbo and Richie sign new contracts with Dons

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

KARL Robinson has signed a new and improved contract to remain at MK Dons, while head of coaching Richie Barker has also agreed a new deal.

Liverpudlian Robinson is currently the third longest-serving manager in the country in the top four divisions and that relationship with Dons will now continue.

It is no surprise given that Dons secured promotion to the Championship for the first time last season after an incredible campaign that saw Dons unbeaten in their last 11 games.

The length of the contract has not been revealed by the club, but Robinson told the Dons website he was delighted to sign on the dotted line and he thanked chairman Pete Winkelman for sticking with him.

"I can't thank the chairman enough for the support he's given me over the five years," Robinson said.

"In certain seasons I imagine it was difficult for him to keep faith in our style.

"Everything I've achieved so far in my managerial career has been down to the support he's given me."

Barker joined the club as head of coaching in a full-time capacity at the start of last season. He had been involved in an advisory capacity at the end of the 2013-14 season, after Gary Waddock left to become manager of Oxford United.

Meanwhile, Peru international Cristian Benavente has signed on a free transfer from Real Madrid. He has signed a two-year contract with the possibility of an extra 12 months.

New deals: Karl Robinson, left, and Richie Barker will be staying at stadiummk after signing contracts this week

Robinson said: "Cristian came on our radar about a month ago. He will take time to settle in England because of the way he plays but I feel we're a club that suits him.

"He is one for the future but hopefully he can make an impact now as well."

Benavente, 21, played under Zinedine Zindane in the Real Madrid youth side Castilla last season but missed out on Peru's Copa America squad in the summer.

The player is an attacking midfielder who can play on either wing.

A young Dons outfit lost 2-1 to Chesham United in a friendly on Monday night, with Kabongo Tshimanga netting first for Dons before Toby Little and Sam Youngs scored for the Southern Premier League side. Dons played Mansfield Town away last night and they travel to Barnet on Saturday.

Ricciardo has mixed feelings ahead of the Hungarian GP

RED Bull driver Daniel Ricciardo has mixed feelings about the Hungaroring ahead of this weekend's final Grand Prix before the summer break begins.

Hungary provides a great track to qualify on because of the way it twists and turns, but Ricciardo says it is difficult to race there as it is very hard to overtake other cars.

It was one of three tracks where he picked up a Grand Prix victory last season but those sorts of aspirations seem a very long way away for the Aussie this year, given the engine problems the team is still suffering from.

"It's a great track for a qualifying lap, one of the best of the year," said Ricciardo.

"It's tight, twisty and bumpy and you have to use a lot of kerb – so getting in a low fuel, new tyre lap right on the limit is lots and lots of fun.

"But, for the same reasons, the race tends to be quite tight with not a lot of overtaking.

"Last year was a great race for me. Of the three wins last year, it was the one where I was definitely most excited during the race."

Daniil Kvyat also feels that Hungary is a bit of a tight track in terms of overtaking.

"I really used to enjoy it in Formula Renault 2.0 but it's probably a little bit too narrow for modern Formula One cars," said the Russian Red Bull driver.

"In qualifying it really makes you push to the limit.

"You're right on the edge and you never get a rest during the lap."

The summer break will be something Red Bull will welcome given their struggles this year. They currently stand fourth in the constructors' championship.

The next Grand Prix after Hungary will take place in Belgium on Sunday, August 23.
